Are you seeking escorts?

Every month our list grows more and more as people purchase my “How to Become an Escort” manual.

The good thing about my lists is that most everyone is seriously interested in the escort industry.

A lot (not all) of these girls who have purchased the book have come to me looking for an agency to work for.

They tell me they are unable to find a professional ethical agency, and they want my help.

I really feel bad not being able to help them, and I always tell them I can't help them because I refuse to take responsibility for any agency's business conduct, since I have a pretty strict code of ethics. I tell them there is no way for me to tell whether you would adhere to my ethics on a constant basis.

Because my reputation would be on the line, I had to find a solution to their problem. I brainstormed and decided to start this advertising package because so many people have been asking me for this.

So as you can see, there are girls seeking escort agencies to work for.

Note: I can not guarantee the quality of the girls. Some will be average, some above average; some will be very high class. You must screen them all yourself.

I already mentioned this in the book, but a reminder to you is that when you are running an agency, you have to advertise for girls and customers all the time.

There is no getting around this unless you are a very exclusive high end agency that deals only with referrals, and even then you probably want new girls on a regular basis, as your customers will be asking you to see new escorts.

Some time in the New Year we will also provide you with a list of customers who are seeking new agencies and independent escorts.

Below is our rate chart for the “hiring escort” ads, so when you are ready, just click on package you would like to place, and it will automatically take you to the payment page.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me, or if you wish to advertise more often, please e-mail me for custom pricing.

Note: You have to have already purchased the Box Set or Platinum Mentorship Package in order to qualify for these rates.

If you haven't, please contact me for another rate card.

All prices are calculated on a monthly basis, meaning you are paying for your ads per month, and payment is required in advance.

As the list grows, we reserve the right to change our pricing.

Thank you

Are you seeking a business partner?

Every month our list grows more and more as people purchase my “How Start and Run an Escort Agency” manual.

The good thing about my lists is that almost everyone is seriously interested in starting an escort agency.

Since quite a few clients have come to me looking for people to partner up with them so they can start their agency, I have decided to do my part in helping you match yourself with someone else on my Exotic Publishing List.

I can not take responsibility if you end up dealing with someone who is shady or unethical, as you know that is not my mandate.

I don't have an opinion one way or another when it comes to partners, other than to tell you it is very much like a marriage, and any good business consultant will educate you on that.

If you get the right one who is just as hard working and ethical as yourself, your business will most probably flourish.

If you end up in bed with someone who is lazy, unethical and maybe even a thief, not only can they take you for all the profits, they could bring you down along with them.

This doesn't just happen in the escort industry, I know of one billionaire who was brought down by his partner, and he had absolutely nothing to do with the adult industry.

The FBI or RCMP doesn't care much who did what when they go after fraudulent companies; they bring everyone they can down, and they don't usually believe you when you say you knew nothing about what was going on in your very own company.

I was the only owner of my first escort agency, and with my second agency I was unlucky enough to get involved with one of those lazy types who never listened to a word I said. Partnering up with him was my fault of course, but now I'm a ton more educated, and I listen to my intuition more, so if you ever need me as a second opinion, I'm here to offer my help.

Partnering with that guy did cost me a lot down the road, but I know that if you are new to the industry or business in general, it may be better for you to open your agency with someone who will work just as hard as you and roll up their sleeves as well. Remember, this is almost a 24 hour business, and you can't do everything yourself.

Not everyone on my list may be as serious as you are, a few haven't even purchased the entire Box Set or Platinum Mentorship Package, so please do your due diligence and screen everyone.

Maybe you have the startup money, and they have the time to run the agency, or vice versa.

Below is our rate chart just for that type of advertising, so when you are ready to start looking, please click on the package you would like to place, and it will automatically take you to the payment page.

If you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me, or if you wish to advertise more often, please e-mail me for custom pricing.

Note: You DON'T have to have already purchased the Box Set or Platinum Mentorship Package in order to qualify for these rates.

All prices are calculated on a monthly basis, meaning you are paying for your ads per month, and payment is required in advance.

As the list grows, we reserve the right to change our pricing.
